

In Process Follow Up

"Hi [Client's Name], it's [Your Name] from [Company Name]. Just wanted to give you a quick update on your mortgage, everything is moving along smoothly."

Status Update:

"Right now, your loan is [in underwriting / pending appraisal / awaiting final approval], and everything is on track. No delays or surprises — we're moving through the process exactly as expected."

Market Update:

"In terms of the market, there haven't been any big changes recently. Interest rates have stayed stable over the past week. So, nothing significant to worry about — we're still in a good spot."

Next Steps:

"We're right where we need to be, and I'll be keeping an eye on things. Once we hit the next step, I'll keep you updated. No action needed from you right now — everything's moving as planned."

"I don't want to run my credit."

You don't need to—not at this point. Let's first see if the numbers work. If they do, then it's your call. No hit, no obligation, just real options. (Pivot)
